

On Friday, February 24, everyone at MMS participated in a school-wide celebration of Dr. Seuss's birthday with the National Education Association's "Read Across America". The day included:

- Drop Everything and Read (DEAR): For 20 minutes during the school day MMS teachers & students silently read a book of their choice.
- Read Aloud: For the first 5-10 minutes of each class, every teacher read aloud to students. Some of the books teachers read include:
 - The Story of the Little Mole Who Went in Search of WhoDunit
 - Horton Hatches the Egg
 - Sir Cumference & the Sword in the Cone
 - Sideways Stories from Wayside School
 - The Dot and the Line: a romance in lower mathematics
 - Zin! Zin! Zin! A Violin
 - The Giving Tree
 - The Day the Crayon Quit

MMS has been hosting this day for 9 years and it was a very fun and special day for students and staff.
